About Us

Who is B.N Brand Management, LLC?

BN Brand Management was established (as a registered company) in 2016 in Greenville, SC by a young marketing professional, Taneka Bradley. After working for two fairly large marketing companies (one being international), it was learned that most major marketing corporations were specifically designed to further the growth and brand recognition of other major corporations. At the time, there were not many marketing companies that were dedicated to providing resources to help small to medium business create effective advertising campaigns and teaching them the importance of having a detailed marketing strategy. She was determined to bring this service to these businesses at affordable rates so that any small to medium business will have the potential to grow significantly and create a lasting brand in due time. The company consist of a small group of knowledgeable and talented professionals that have a passion for what they do that goes well beyond the cliché. The difference is in the results.

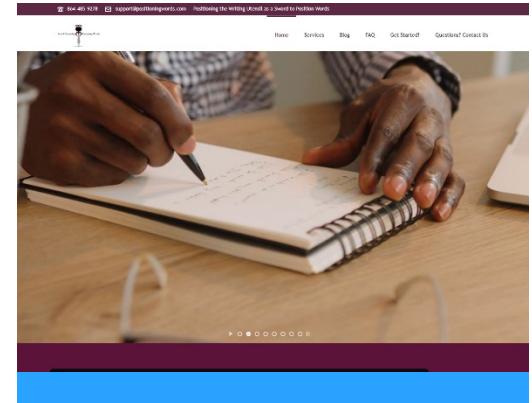

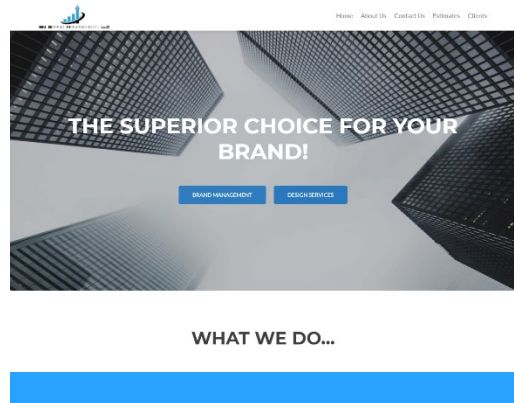

A Quote From Our CEO...

“I understand as a business owner, it’s hard to work IN your business and work ON it. That’s exactly what we’re here for. We are your company’s marketing department and we will ensure that your business is branded the right way!”

- Taneka Bradley
